If such arrangements apply we will advise you of the carrier operating the aircraft at the time you make a reservation.

- 3.1.2 Tickets are not transferable unless we agree and the applicable fee is paid.
- 3.1.3 Tickets sold by Blue Islands, along with ancillary services such as seat selection and extra hold baggage, are non-refundable
- 3.1.4 Some Tickets are sold at discounted fares which may be partially or completely non-refundable. You should choose the fare best suited to your needs. You may also wish to ensure that you have appropriate insurance to cover instances where you have to cancel your Ticket.
- 3.1.5 If you have a non-refundable Ticket that is unused due to Force Majeure, we may, at our absolute discretion, provide you with a credit of the non-refundable amount of the fare, for future travel with us, subject to deduction of a reasonable administration fee if you advise Blue Islands Customer Care within 24 hours of your scheduled flight and furnish evidence of such Force Majeure.
- 3.1.6 The Ticket is and remains at all times the property of the issuing airline.
- 3.1.7 You will not be entitled to be carried on a flight unless you present either:
- a valid Ticket containing the Flight Coupon for that flight and all other unused Flight Coupons and the Passenger Coupon; or
 - positive identification and a valid Electronic Ticket that has been duly issued in your name.
- 3.1.8 You shall not be entitled to be carried if the Ticket presented is mutilated or if it has been altered otherwise than by us or our Authorised Agent.
- 3.1.9 A ticket is valuable and you should take appropriate measures to safeguard it and ensure it is not lost or stolen.
- 3.2 Period of validity
- 3.2.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Ticket, these Conditions of Carriage, or in applicable Tariffs (in which case the limitation will be shown on the Ticket), a Ticket is valid for:
- one year from the date of issue; or
 - subject to the first travel occurring within one year from the date of issue, one year from the date of first travel under the Ticket.
- 3.2.2 If you are prevented from travelling within the period of validity of the Ticket because we are unable to confirm a reservation at the time you request a reservation, the validity of such Ticket will be extended, or you may be entitled to a refund in accordance with Article 10.

- 3.2.3 If you become ill after the commencement of your journey and you are prevented from travelling within the period of validity of the Ticket, we may extend the period of validity of your Ticket until either the date when you become fit to travel; or our first available flight after such date in the class of service for which the fare has been paid from the point where the journey is resumed. You must provide us with a medical certificate stating the facts relating to your illness and confirming the date that you will be fit to travel again.
- 3.2.4 When the flight coupon(s) or electronic coupon remaining in the Ticket involve one or more Stopovers, the validity of such Ticket may be extended for not more than three months from the date shown on the medical certificate. - 3.3.3 Should you change your transportation without our agreement, we will assess the correct price for your actual travel. You will have to pay any difference between the price you have paid and the total price applicable for your revised transportation, but otherwise your unused Coupons have no value.
- 3.3.4 Some types of changes will not result in a change of fare, but others, such as changing the place of departure (for example, if you do not fly the first segment) or reversing the direction you travel, can result in an increase in price. Many special fares are valid only on the dates and for the flights shown on the Ticket and may not be changed at all, or only upon payment of an additional fee.
- 3.3.5 Each Flight Coupon contained in your Ticket will be accepted for carriage in the class of service on the date and flight for which space has been reserved. - 9.3.1 Blue Islands makes every effort to operate its published schedules. There are occasions however, where it is not possible to do so and a flight may be delayed or cancelled. This notification informs you of your rights under EC regulation No 261/2004 and UK261 should this happen; it does not give you any additional contractual rights. This law is applicable to all passengers departing from an airport within the EU and to all passengers travelling into an EU member state on an EU carrier unless they have received benefits or compensation and were given assistance in the country of departure. It is the operating carrier's responsibility to meet these requirements.
- 9.3.2 Blue Islands is based in the Channel Islands and is not an 'EU carrier/Community carrier'; many of our flights originate outside the EU, including from the Channel Islands (Guernsey and Jersey), and are not covered by EC regulations in respect of cancellations and long delays. Flights operated by us to which these EC regulations apply are those departing from an EU member state.
- 9.3.3 We will however endeavour to meet the requirements of EC Regulation No 261/2004 and UK261 on all of our routes in respect of the right to refund or re-routing. However, compensation and accommodation at Blue Islands cost will not be made available on ineligible flights in the event of Cancellation or Long Delay. Travellers are advised to take out their own insurance. Where applicable your rights under EC Regulation No 261/2004 and UK261 are set out below.
- 9.3.4 Right to re-routing or refund
Passengers whose flight is cancelled, shall have the choice of either:
 - Re-routing, under comparable transport conditions, to the final destination on the ticket presented at check-in at the earliest opportunity or at a later date at the passenger's convenience, subject to availability; or

- A full refund

9.3.5 For all flights between UK and the Channel Islands delayed for over five hours, cancelled or diverted the following options are available;

- If you wish to continue with your travel, we will get you to your destination on your original booking at the earliest opportunity in the same class of travel; this is called re-routing. We will do our best to re-route you on a flight operated by Blue Islands, but it could be a flight with another carrier or alternative travel means.
- If you no longer wish to travel, we will offer you a full refund of your ticket within 14 days. If you opt for a refund, please be aware that Blue Islands no longer has a duty to provide you with food, drink or accommodation or transport and you won't be able to claim back the difference if you book a more expensive ticket. In such cases we would suggest that you contact your travel insurance provider.
- If you are a diverted customer, or if you are travelling on a through ticket and part way through your journey, and you do not wish to continue to your final destination, Blue Islands will ensure that you are returned to your original departure airport at the earliest opportunity.
- If your flight is part of a package holiday, and you need to rebook your entire trip, this must be arranged with your tour operator. If you wish to continue your travel at the earliest opportunity our airport representative will be able to assist.
- We will prioritise helping passengers who require special assistance, those travelling with them, those travelling with children and unaccompanied Youths.

9.3.6 For point to point flights between Guernsey and Jersey delayed for over three hours, cancelled or diverted the following options are available;

- If you wish to continue with your travel, we will get you to your destination on your original booking at the earliest opportunity in the same class of travel; this is called re-routing. We will do our best to re-route you on a flight operated by Blue Islands, but it could be a flight with another carrier or alternative travel means.
- If you no longer wish to travel, we will offer you a full refund of your ticket within 14 days or alternatively allow you to change your booking to a future date at no charge (fare difference may apply).
- If you are a diverted customer, or if you are travelling on a through ticket and part way through your journey, and you do not wish to continue to your final destination, Blue Islands will ensure that you are returned to your original departure airport at the earliest opportunity.
- If your flight is part of a package holiday, and you need to rebook your entire trip, this must be arranged with your tour operator. If you wish to continue your travel at the earliest opportunity our airport representative will be able to assist.
- We will prioritise helping passengers who require special assistance, those travelling with them, those travelling with children and unaccompanied children.

9.3.7 How to claim a refund/reimbursement

A refund is only ever payable to the person who purchased the ticket. This applies to the part or parts of the journey not flown. To apply for a refund of unused parts of your journey or reimbursement of the parts of the journey flown, please contact the office where your ticket was purchased. If you have flown on a Blue Islands operated flight and booked through www.blueislands.com or directly with Blue Islands through our reservations department, please contact Blue Islands Customer Care, by email to customercare@blueislands.com or by post: Blue Islands Customer Care, Jersey Airport, St Peter, Jersey JE3 7BP. Otherwise please contact the office where your ticket was purchased. You will need to provide in writing your name and contact details, booking reference, flight number, date and details of the claim you are making and supporting documents.

9.3.8 Right to care

Where a flight is subject to a long delay, passengers may be entitled to refreshments and meals in reasonable relation to their waiting time as well as means of contacting two people outside the airport. These provisions apply according to the duration of the expected delay and the distance of the flight as follows and only if eligible under EU 261/2004 and UK261. Blue Islands does not operate any flights beyond 1500km; therefore, you are entitled to this right of care after a delay of 2 hours or more. Such arrangements may not be provided if by making those arrangements this would cause the flight to be further delayed.

If the flight concerned is eligible under EU261/2004 and UK261, in accordance with applicable law, where the expected departure time of the flight (whether in the case of a delay or if you are re-routed following a cancellation) is at least the day after the departure time of the original flight, the operating carrier will provide hotel accommodation if necessary and provide transport between the airport and place of accommodation. Passengers will be advised of the arrangements for obtaining refreshments, transport and hotel accommodation by the carrier. Should passengers be asked to make their own arrangements, associated invoices/receipts for reasonable expenses will be necessary to claim costs from the airline and reasonable costs may be reimbursed.

9.3.9 Right to compensation for cancelled flights (not including long delays) on EU261/2004 and UK261 eligible flights.

- Where you are informed of a cancellation less than fourteen days before the planned departure date (unless caused by extraordinary circumstances which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures had been taken) you may claim compensation unless you are offered a re-route which allows departure and arrival at your final destination within the following times:
- If you are informed of the cancellation between thirteen and seven days before the scheduled time of departure and are offered re-routing, allowing you to depart no more than two hours before the scheduled time of departure and to reach your final destination less than four hours after the scheduled time of arrival; or
- if you are informed of the cancellation less than seven days before the scheduled time of departure and are offered re-routing, allowing you to depart no more than one hour before the scheduled time of departure and to reach your final destination less than two hours after the scheduled time of arrival.

9.3.10 Blue Islands does not operate flights beyond 1500km within the EU/UK therefore the maximum compensations available is EUR 250 for flights eligible under EU261/2004 or GBP 220 for flights eligible under UK261. In the event of a cancellation and Blue Islands offers a re-routing to the final destination that does not exceed the scheduled arrival time of the original flight by two hours, this compensation is reduced by 50%. Please note that passengers are not entitled to compensation if they have been informed of a cancellation fourteen days or more before the planned departure date. Passengers will be informed of cancellations via the contact details given to the operating carrier with the booking by the passenger, the purchaser of the ticket or the travel agent. Blue Islands is not obliged to pay compensation if it can prove that the cancellation was caused by extraordinary circumstances which could not have been avoided even if all reasonable measures have been taken.

9.3.11 How to claim compensation

To make a claim for compensation please contact Blue Islands Customer Care by email to customercare@blueislands.com or by post: Blue Islands Customer Care, Jersey Airport, St Peter, Jersey JE3 7BP. Claimants must supply their name and contact details, the name of other passengers being claimed for and their contact details, booking reference and details of the cancelled flight. Claims can cover up to a total of six passengers provided that they have the same surname, are in the same booking and have travelled the same journey. Otherwise separate claims must be submitted.

Please note Blue Islands is unable to process your claim for compensation at the airport.

9.3.12 Eligibility

To be eligible for any of the rights listed above passengers must have a confirmed reservation on the flight (or have been transferred by us onto the flight from another flight on which they had a confirmed reservation) and be in possession of an e-ticket itinerary receipt (or, for UK tour operator bookings, an ATOL receipt specifying the flight). In addition, passengers' rights in respect of a delay only arise if they have presented themselves for check-in in good time. If you do have any complaints regarding your ability to exercise your rights, please contact Blue Islands Customer Care. In the event that your complaint is still not answered to your satisfaction, you may contact the Air Transport Users Council, CAA House, 45-59 Kingsway, London, WC2B 6TE, United Kingdom.

9.3.13 Third party claims

This article applies to compensation claims under EU Regulation 261/2004 and UK261.

- Passengers on Blue Islands operated services must submit claims directly to Blue Islands and allow Blue Islands 28 days to respond (or the time described by law, whichever is lesser), before engaging the services of any third parties.
- Blue Islands will not process any claims submitted by a third party if the passenger has not submitted the claim directly to Blue Islands and allowed Blue Islands the time to respond, as per 9.3.13.1 above. Nor will Blue Islands process a claim that is not supported by appropriate documentation evidencing the authority of the third party to represent the passenger.
- this Article does not apply to passengers who do not have the capacity to submit claims, these may be submitted by a legal guardian. Blue Islands may request evidence to demonstrate the legal guardian has the authority to submit a claim on the passenger's behalf.
- A passenger may submit a claim to Blue Islands on behalf of other passengers on the same booking, evidence may be required to demonstrate the passenger has the consent of the other passengers on the booking to submit the claim.

A re-route will be organised by Blue Islands and will be on our schedule or with a carrier with which we have a reciprocal agreement. Blue Islands will not pay for re-route tickets bought without our prior authorisation.

Blue Islands is not liable under any circumstances for any consequential loss that you may incur and/or to reimburse you in respect of the cost of any other components of your trip.
